VANDERBILT AND HIS AMERICAN JOCKEY PART

PARIS, November II.-W. K. Vanderbilt and his American jockey, J. Bausen, wal part company at the end of the current season. Mr. Vanderbilt has engaged Bellhouse, one of the leading riders here for next season.

Rausch has ridden Mr. Vanderbilts horses for the last three years and is very popular here. Next season he will, in all probability, ride for M. J. Prat, who maintains an extensive racing establishment.

NEW MAN TO THE FRONT IN THE RACING WORLD

WINNIPEG, November 17,-A man has been devloped in the rowing world of the Southern sens, who may join Ed. Durnan in disputing the supremacy of George Towns, the present holder of the pres. lership. The newcomer is William Webb, now the amateur champion of New Zealand, and so strong is the faith of his backers in his ability that they have offered to match him with Jim Stanbury for $1.000 a side and allow Stanbury $250 expenses to row on the Wangganui River.

THE GREAT

Challenge Sale

Men's and Young Men's and Overcoats

The announcement of this sale packed the store to its utmost capacity yesterday. Hundreds of people took advantage of the first opportunity of the season to purchase Fall and Winter Clothing and Furnishings at the cost of raw materials. The sensational purchase of the immense stock of Liverigth, Greenewald & Co., Clothing Manufacturers, of Philadelphia, at 662-3e on the dollar, by Samuel E. Duggins paved the way for the greatest slaughter of Clothing prices Richmond has witnessed in years. It's the Clothing event of the season. Don't judge this sale by others you have read or attended in this city. Read the prices quoted below; come and investigate; you will find everything as advertised. These values won't last always. Here is how they are priced:

Overcoats--Cravenettes.

Men's and young men's; every color, every size, including the new model Fifth Avenue, form fitting; Long Ulsters, Raincoats, Short Overcoats,
